

Membership

01 Membership. The Saint Paul Historical Society (SPPHS) is an unfunded, nonessential component of the Saint Paul Police Department, attached to the Office of the Chief. The society is open for membership to anyone interested in Saint Paul's policing history. More specifically, its membership shall be composed of:

02 Members. Active and honorary members.

03 Active Member. Any person interested in the history of the City of Saint Paul policing service may be enrolled as an active member of the SPPHS by a majority approval of members present at any regular meeting.

04 Active Member Categories. Active membership shall include the following categories;

- (a) Individual membership.
- (b) Household membership.
- (c) Institutional membership. Any business, club, association, society or other affiliate entity interested in the programs or purposes of the SPPHS may become an institutional member of the society. Institutional members may attend all meetings of the society but have no voting rights.

05 Qualified Member. No person shall be qualified as a member and entitled to vote at regular, special or annual meetings unless his/her annual dues have been paid to the Treasurer and name has been inscribed on the membership list at or in advance of any meeting.

06 Dues. Although current dues collected from SPPHS members are listed below, at some future time dues payment changes may be proposed by the Board of Directors subject to majority approval of members present and voting at an annual meeting.

- (a) Individual membership: $10.00 per annum.
- (b) Household membership: $15.00 per annum.
- (c) Institutional membership: $20.00 per annum.

07 Default. Members failing to pay their dues after they become payable shall be dropped from the rolls 60 days after the mailing of a notice of such default.

08 Honorary Member. Any individual, in recognition of achievements or for services rendered in line with the purposes of the SPPHS, may be elected an honorary member by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting. Honorary members may attend all meetings of the society but have no voting rights.
